Tasting notes

Our pick of the whites from Sollier, 50% Roussanne & 50% Viognier, if you like white Chateauneuf-du-Pape but don't want the hefty price then this is the wine for you. Peach, apricot and green mango, a touch of cream, a lick of acidity and just the slightest suggestion of oak, this is really impressive. L&S (Jul 2023)

Domaine le Sollier

Domaine le Sollier is the most westerly domaine in Duché d'Uzès in the foothills of the Cévennes based in the village of Monoblet. A largely calcareous mountainous terrain, the Cévennes enjoys a Mediterranean climate of hot days, balanced by cool nights.

What marks out le Sollier is that it lies on a fault, so the 12.5 hectares of vineyards, farmed by Nicolas Olivier and his brothers, have a mix of different soils. Sandstone, marl, limestone and dolomitic deposits are well drained and allow Nicolas to produce eye-catching wines of great purity.

Low intervention winemaking with minimal sulphur, these are beautifully detailed wines of great persistence and immense drinkability.
